

Pray...

- Day 1: to clearly know what God desires from us during these 30 days.
- Day 2: we will not grow weary during this period of dedicated prayer.
- Day 3: our hearts will be humbled as we stand in His presence.
- Day 4: we will be spiritually prepared to hear His voice.
- Day 5: to see the physical needs of those around us.
- Day 6: against the oppression and suppression of the gospel worldwide.
- Day 7: to be moved to reach the nations in our neighborhoods.
- Day 8: for God to break the bonds of apathy that bind us.
- Day 9: as He moves us to brokenness for the lost, we will know exactly how He wants us to minister.
- Day 10: our affection for possessions will be removed so we can give as He leads.
- Day 11: for God to stir a deep desire within us to reach the lost—personally.
- Day 12: for commitment to fulfill His will as He leads.
- Day 13: for God to bless the efforts of missionaries as they disciple new believers.
- Day 14: for leaders to be trained and equipped to train others.
- Day 15: for churches to birth more churches.
- Day 16: field personnel and national workers will be united in spirit and action.
- Day 17: for people to be willing to go and give all if God asks that.
- Day 18: Mission leadership will know where/to whom God is leading us to work.
- Day 19: God will give us courage to tackle the hard places and a harvest will emerge.
- Day 20: Free Will Baptists will recognize our role in God's Kingdom.
- Day 21: the Holy Spirit will reveal what else we should be doing.
- Day 22: for unity within the FWBs, to work together to accomplish more for God.
- Day 23: to understand how to "labor with the Body of Christ to fulfill the Great Commission."
- Day 24: for national leaders' physical, emotional, and spiritual needs.
- Day 25: we will practice good stewardship of the resources God has given.
- Day 26: for a spirit of self-sacrifice among FWBs as a whole and ourselves, personally.
- Day 27: those responding to God's call will be fully funded so they can go.
- Day 28: for more people to respond to the call to go.
- Day 29: in all things, IM will follow God's direction—nothing more, nothing less.
- Day 30: we will follow Christ's call to "go into all the world" in total obedience to His leading and timing.
