SAFEGUARDS

FOR CORRESPONDING WITH MISSIONARIES & FIELD WORKERS

Missionaries enjoy hearing from you and do not want to dampen your enthusiasm for communicating with them. Some are in places where their mail and email may be monitored. Please heed the following tips when communicating with missionaries.

- Encrypting or coding emails may draw unwanted attention.
- It's called snail-mail for a reason. First class mail may take two to three weeks to reach missionaries. So, please, mail time-sensitive cards or letters early.
- Never assume private communications are private. Always assume someone other than the intended recipient is downloading, opening, and/or saving your private communication. This is especially true in creative access countries.
- Avoid using Christian terminology. Don't use words (or variations of them) like church, believers, missions, missionary, evangelism, witnessing, Bible, pray, and Jesus. Take cues from the newsletters and emails you receive from individual missionaries.
- Never share, repost, or forward content from field workers' newsletters.
- Avoid political & religious emails to missionaries regarding their field of service.
- Don't send letters on church stationery or packages with church address labels.

While some of the above may currently apply only to creative access countries, it doesn't hurt to get in the habit of using these guidelines in all communications.

Please send ALL postal mail correspondence

World Missions Offering

There's an old African proverb that says: "The load is lighter when two people carry it." This simple truth paints a vivid picture, not just of shared physical labor, but of the shared calling we bear as followers of Christ to reach the unreached and fulfill the Great Commission in Matthew 28.

It truly takes all of us to carry the load. Some are called to go. All are called to pray. And together, we are called to give sacrificially so the Gospel can go where it's needed most. The command to take the Good News to the ends of the earth was not given to a select few; it was a command to every believer.

You are invited to join us this year as we pursue the mission "Share the Gospel. Give a million. Reach a million." To reach the million-dollar goal for the World Missions Offering, we need you.

Your generosity to the WMO kick-starts the work of new IM missionaries, strengthens the IM General Fund, and empowers global partnerships advancing the Gospel through local national believers. Our missionaries, national leaders, partners, and staff are committed to presenting the Gospel and doing so in a way that invites a response from those who hear it.

Partner with us to share the Gospel by giving to the World Missions Offering.

– Clint Morgan, General Director, IM Inc.

The Gospel message is about how Jesus came to bring salvation to a lost and dying world. Whether you've heard this message your whole life or it's brand new for you, the truth is for every generation, every nation, and every heart. At IM, our goal is to reach every heart with the message of Help, Hope, and Healing. Missionaries in places around the world are proclaiming the Gospel to those who have never heard the name of Jesus. Partners who live and work in some of the most resistant areas are reaching the people around them with its truth. Our Stateside ministry team is working diligently to keep training and sending out missionaries to spread the Word.
